Project Description:

Sustainable Rural Community Development is a local Non-Governmental Organisation creating opportunities for lasting improvement in peoples lives. In Malawi we work in Nsanje and Chikwawa in collaboration with the District Councils and communities to implement development interventions reaching over the rural people. Over the past five years we have gained significant experience across a range of areas including agriculture; climate change and disaster risk management, economic empowerment and Nutrition, Gender and Human Rights.

Notice: This is an Africa WG project. Please contact the SCI branch or partner organisation in your country for further information.
